Pilots who participate in the FAA's Pilot Proficiency Award Program have been shown to have fewer accidents and incidents. This is your opportunity to either begin or continue participation in this important recurrent training program. Seminars will include both pilot and maintenance safety topics. The meetings will begin promptly at 0900 and will end at 1430. Lunch will be provided for a nominal fee. Check with your insurance carrier too, as some give discounts for WINGS participants. Don't miss this exciting and important safety meeting!

Directions: The Felts Field Maintenance Shop is located inside the fence at SFF just across the taxiway from MedStar. An attendant will be at the east entrance to SFF to give directions to the meeting.
